Basheer & Edgemoore Wins National Community of the Year Award

Las Vegas, NV (February 4, 2014) – Basheer & Edgemoore is proud to announce that it has been the recipient of a Silver Award at the National Sales and Marketing Awards for 2014. Hosted by the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB), Basheer & Edgemoore succeeded as a Silver Award Winner in the Community of the Year category.

As Community of the Year, Basheer & Edgemoore won for its Maymont community in Vienna, Virginia. The classic elegance and timeless beauty of European estates live in the homes at Maymont. Every inch of the 5,000 to 8,000 square feet has been carefully designed for maximum impact. Each home features the luxury standards one would expect from Basheer & Edgemoore, such as rich hardwood flooring, granite countertops and impressive brick and stone exteriors.

About Basheer & Edgemoore:

Since its founding, Basheer & Edgemoore has emerged as the area's premier developer and builder of luxury estates and communities. The company carefully selects and develops each property based on its natural beauty, convenience and potential, but always with a sense of respect for preservation and history.

Over the years, Basheer & Edgemoore has taken advantage of technological advances and improvements in construction and design to create lasting value in every home. These efforts have garnered industry recognition for leadership and innovation. Basheer & Edgemoore continues to build distinguished residences and communities that satisfy the refined tastes of discerning homeowners.

Basheer & Edgemoore strives to create lasting value through quality construction, thoughtful community planning and an unparalleled commitment to customer service.
